SECTION I - YOUR IDENTITY

Anyone may file a complaint, regardless of who you are, and you are not required to identify yourself, except for allegations of reprisal. In order to remain anonymous, do not provide any identifying information below. You may also elect to remain confidential, or consent to the release of your identity and complaint outside of Navy IG channels.

If you remain anonymous, we will not be able to contact you to request additional information or provide you the status of your complaint. Remaining anonymous will not in and of itself affect the disposition of your complaint, however, if we are unable to reach out to you for additional information, we may dismiss your complaint.

We may also determine that your complaint should be referred outside of Navy IG channels, such as the chain of command (e.g. the Commanding Officer). Unless you are anonymous, we need your consent to provide your identity and complaint as part of our referral. If you wish to remain confidential and not provide your consent, we will provide a sanitized summary of your complaint instead of your actual complaint. If you give us your consent we will provide your actual complaint but redact your identity unless your identity is necessary to take action. If you wish to remain anonymous, we will provide your actual complaint as part of the referral.

Regardless of your selection, we will make every attempt to safeguard your identity, but we cannot guarantee confidentiality as we may be required to disclose your identity as part of an investigation, in the course of corrective action, as a result of a decision of the COMNAVSURFLANT (CNSL) IG or as required by any applicable law, rule or regulation.
